

Perky Tits

The Perky Tits concept was conceived by Flossie, Embryo (visionaries both on constant look out for ideas during Embryo's stint as GM), Running Bare (Artist and Publicist), Jagger (Musical Director) with a little help from Young Dags (son of Wobble Wobble) (and in those days from Hamersley H3 and now Derby H3). At the same time Hamersley had a pack of Young Guns running with them - which sparked the slogan on the back of the original Perky Tit T-shirt (see quote below) - the Young Guns had something very similar. Perky Tits first run was 16 June 1998.

"Inside this t-shirt are a couple of Perky Tits so pick yours up off the ground and get movin' DON'T TRIP NOW!"

The concept was sparked back in the days when there was a pub-crawl hash run on a Friday or Saturday night once per month.

Thanks to Running Bare, the front of the original shirt defined a Perky Tit. The definition below includes the names of the nine founding Perky Tits:-

"Perky Tits / 'p3ki tits /, Colloq. referring to female hominid breasts. Perky tits are characterised by their fullness, round shape and firm consistency. Give a pleasing rhythmical bounce when the female is running etc. Can be useful for getting drinks at a bar or avoiding parking fines. Most commonly found in the Perth Hash House Harriettes colony subspecies include Bootz, Embryo, Go Bush, Flossie, Jagger, Plukka, Cock-O-Dial, Shag, and Running Bare."

Sadly our founding Perky Tits are all long lost mammary!!! Over the years many Perky Tits have blessed us with their pert knockers, but alas upon their 30th birthday, they are considered 'EXPIRED' and such is printed across their Perky Tits T-shirt and they join the rest of us Southbound Saggy Sets!

We were gatecrashed by a massive melon influx of Perky Tits in 2010-11 who proudly revamped the Perky Tits song and continue to bambooble us with their talents! They insist they are "happy little vegemites" and taunt us with their teasing that they are "growing higher every day!" May their jugs keep jogging upwards! But we know otherwise.....

Perky Tits Song

(To the tune of the Vegemite Song)

We're Perky Perky Perky Tits
As high and tight can be
We all enjoy our Perky Tits
For Hashmen you and me
Our Mummy says they're growing higher every single day
Because we love our Perky Tits
We all adore our Perky Tits
We put a nipple on every cheeeeeeeeeeeeeek!!!
